Unmasking Microaggressions: An Interactive Discussion

During this interactive experience, participants will become more aware of how their biases impact interactions with others. Practical strategies to help identify microaggressions & techniques to improve inclusivity within the workplace/classroom will also be discussed.

Real Conversations With Impact (RCWI) Experience™

The RCWI Experience™ is a 4-part interactive series created to provide a safe space to host challenging conversations, explore intense emotions, & educate participants on how to boost cultural sensitivity.

Our Past Clients

We have worked with small & large organizations around the globe, including but not limited to universities, fortune 500 companies, non-for-profit, & government agencies.

What Clients Say

"Dr. Warner facilitated a session for my organization on Unmasking Microaggressions in the workplace. The webinar was a huge success, & Dr. Warner was very accommodating with the needs of the organization. Staff were particularly impressed with the toolkit he provides after the session for participants to utilize on their own."
